

Kindly retain the current station ownership rules. GIVING even more of the PUBLIC airways to PRIVATE entities unwilling and unable to serve the PUBLIC interest in diverse news sources would amount simply to the latest of the Bush administration's scandalous giveaways to the haves at the expense of the have nots. [Try the denial of child care tax credits to people with incomes under $25,000--leaving 12 million children behind.]